VOLUME 10, ISSUE 4

AUGUST 2014

CHRIST PEOPLE HEALTH

PRAYER ITEMS/THANKS GIVING

- Thank God that the hospital has continued to operate despite facing financial hardship and the peace prevailing among our staff at this time of economic hardships and pray that we may find a lasting solution to the problem.
- Pray that we find a clinician and Nurse to man Newly opened Clinic at Msumbe in Chitipa.
- Thank God for the support we got from various overseas partners and friends. It is with such support that the hospital has been able to carry on the healing ministry. We are particularly grateful to Livingstonia Hospital Partnership and Mourne Presbyterian Church for the steady support

THE HOSPITAL HAS A NEW AMBULANCE.

A dream has now become a reality. The hospital wish to extend sincere appreciation to Mourne Presbyterian Church for the procurement of a brand new Ambulance from Toyota Malawi amounting to USD52,748.00 (MK22,101,339.60). This is a very timely gift. The Ambulance that we have has been in use for quite sometime. This has rendered it uneconomical to maintain.

STAFF PROFILE: CLEVER KALUA

We have been joined by a new Clinical Officer Clever Kalua. He is a holder of a Diploma in Clinical Medicine. As a general Clinical Officer his responsibility include conducting ward rounds, surgical procedures, screening patients among others. He joined the hospital on 1st March 2014.

Clever is twenty-seven years old. Married to Dorah Msiska, blessed with a daughter, Dorcas Kalua. He comes from Benthu Village, Nthalire Chitipa.

Building construction-

With support from Mourne Presbyterian Church low cost house has been finished the remaining part is electricity connection by Escom.

Macnaire Trust also supported the other one, its now on roofing level.

SPIRITUAL GUIDANCE

'If I tell, you will not believe me, and if I asked you, you would not answer. But from now on, the son of man will be seated at the right hand of the mighty GOD....

Luke 22 v 67-70

NIV STUDY VERSION

THE PLIGHT OF TRIPLETS.

Violet Ngwira has given birth to triplets; 1st twin 1.5kg, 2nd twin 1.4kg, 3rd twin 1.3kg. The PHC Programme will be supporting these children and family with food every month. Today these children are two weeks old and improving greatly. However this is a long journey and needs much support.

Jonathan Mhango six months old her mother died soon after delivery at a health centre. In the time of tragedy PHC has started supporting with milk, clothes and blankets as well.
